

The summer geometry institute was well received. Participants evaluated the facilities and guest content consultant Steve West with great praise. Participants were asked for suggestions for future professional development opportunities. A few strands were noted, but the majority asked for a focus in the area of Data Analysis and Probability. Plans are underway. Watch the Blue Ribbon Web Site for announcements.