1. The Algebra Support Project is going well. We have four counties participating: Harrison, Mineral, Monongalia and Wetzel. We head our make up in April 10. We will have funding from WVDE to extend activities and will most likely seed a Teacher Quality Grant to scale up the project .
2. Susan Goodwin has announced the Fairmont State University will host the TI_Nspire Institute on June 22 - 24. Cost is $325 and registration is at www.tinspire2010.com. More information is posted on the Blue Ribbon Web Site.
3. Our guest presenters was Dr. Gary Ganser who discussed Math 155, WVU's four-credit calculus course. Professor Ganser coordinates the Engineering Sections.
4. Our next meeting will be at WVU Math Department on Sept. 14. Suggestions for presenters are requested. The second fall meeting will be held on October 26. Location for the October meeting will be discussed.
