

The Lenart Sphere workshop was led by Bill Marthinsen. Each participant received a model sphere and an Exploring the Lenart Sphere workbook from Key Curriculum Press. Bill is currently a High School teacher at Piedmont High School near San Francisco and returned to teacher after helping Key Curriculum put together Professional Development sessions for mathematics educators. Participants had a fun time discovering non-Euclidean properties with hands on experiences.